Financial Information

Unless otherwise noted, all information is given at, or for, the fiscal year ended October 31, 2001 and is expressed in Canadian dollars.

CORPORATE STRUCTURE

Canadian Western Bank (the "Bank") is a Schedule I chartered bank under the Bank Act (the "Act"). The Bank was formed effective November 1, 1987 through the amalgamation of Bank of Alberta (incorporated on March 22, 1984) and Western & Pacific Bank of Canada (incorporated on March 25, 1982). Canadian Western Bank has also amalgamated with two other financial institutions since 1987: B.C. Bancorp (effective November 1, 1996) and North West Trust Company (effective December 31, 1994). The Act is the charter of the Bank and governs its operations.

The Act also provides for the appointment of a Superintendent of Financial Institutions who is responsible to the Minister of Finance Canada for the administration of the Act. It is the Superintendent's duty to examine and enquire into the business and affairs of each bank governed by the Act, to ensure that its provisions, having regard to the protection of the interests of the depositors, creditors and shareholders of the banks are being observed and that the banks are in sound financial condition. The Superintendent performs an annual inspection and submits his report to the Minister of Finance thereafter.

GENERAL DEVELOPMENT OF THE BUSINESS

Three Year History

The Bank is the eighth largest Canadian Schedule I chartered bank as ranked in terms of total assets and it operates only in Canada. From 1998 to 2001 the Bank's total assets have grown by over $1 billion to $3.4 billion at October 31, 2001. Since 1998 an internal loan growth rate averaging 13% has been achieved. The Bank and Canadian Western Trust Company ("CWT"), a wholly owned subsidiary, offer a comprehensive range of personal and commercial banking and trust services.

During the year ending October 31, 2001 the Bank became fully taxable as all of the available unclaimed tax deductions were fully utilized. For the year ended October 31, 2001 the Bank's effective tax rate was approximately 33%, excluding the effect of future income tax rate changes on future income tax assets, compared to 15% in fiscal 2000. In fiscal 2002 the Bank will be fully taxable for the whole year at an estimated effective tax rate of 37 - 40%.

Significant Acquisitions and Dispositions

In January 1998, a controlling interest in Canadian Western Capital Limited ("CWC") was acquired. Significant efforts were directed towards developing and building CWC's wealth management business but the expected benefits of these changes did not materialize. The sale of CWC to Goepel McDermid Inc. of Vancouver closed February 16, 2000.

Trends

Legislation to reform the policy framework for Canada's financial services sector was enacted in October 2001. The legislation eliminates the current restriction on ownership of smaller banks, such as Canadian Western Bank, from the existing maximum of 10% ownership by any one investor, subject to a determination by its board that it would be in the best interests of the institution and subsequent application to the Minister of Finance for approval. Although the impact on the Bank is uncertain it is expected that this change would broaden the Bank's options for forming beneficial alliances in the future.

DESCRIPTION OF THE BUSINESS

General

The Bank operates only in Canada and is the only Schedule I bank with branches located exclusively in the western provinces. A comprehensive range of personal and commercial banking and trust services is provided. At October 31, 2001 there were 27 branches located in the provinces of British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba and approximately 548 full-time and full-time equivalent staff were employed.

Retail and Commercial Banking and Trust Services

Three Regional Vice Presidents and a Vice President in each of real estate lending and industrial lending have the overall responsibility for retail and commercial banking operations. There are twelve branches in Alberta, eleven branches in British Columbia, three branches in Saskatchewan and one branch in Manitoba. There are two additional banking operations, one located within the Edmonton Head Office and one within the Vancouver Regional Office, which process only deposits gathered through a network of agents operating throughout Canada. Through CWT's Vancouver and Calgary locations, self-directed RRSPs and RRIFs, and corporate and group trust services are provided to individuals, independent financial advisors, consultants and institutions.

Retail banking services are aimed at the saver and investor with emphasis placed on a variety of competitively priced deposit products. Retail customers have access to their accounts through the Bank's membership in the Interac[®], Cirrus[®] and Exchange[®] automated banking machine networks, the Interac[®] Direct Payment system and CWT Direct[®], an internet PC banking system. Competitively priced consumer loans and mortgages are offered to customers. CWT's corporate and group trust services include registered pension custody and executive compensation plans services as well as share purchase plan and stock option plan administration. CWT's deposit products are also sold through the Bank's branch locations.

Commercial banking services are divided into three major categories: general commercial banking, real estate lending and industrial lending. In addition, the Calgary branches specialize in energy related loans. Commercial banking includes current accounts, lines of credit and operating and term loans. Real estate lending includes loans for commercial premises as well as construction and development loans. Industrial lending consists primarily of term loans on equipment and financial leasing activities. The focus is towards more term, fixed rate lending, however, some borrowers have been demonstrating an increasing preference for floating rate debt. At October 31, 2001 approximately 55% of commercial banking loans fell into the fixed rate category. The Bank has also developed a portfolio of loans, identified internally as corporate loans, through participation in syndications, the majority of which have been structured and led by the major Canadian banks. This initiative has afforded the Bank the opportunity to participate in larger investment grade credits as well as providing a degree of geographic diversification.

It is the Bank's policy to limit single and associated corporate borrowers' loan authorizations to not more than 10% of regulatory capital, excepting government risk and loans secured by cash or cash equivalents. Customers with larger borrowing requirements may be accommodated through syndication of loans with other financial institutions.

Competition

Competition mainly comes from chartered banks, credit unions, trust companies and other regionally-based financial institutions. The Bank operates in very competitive markets, particularly with respect to the pricing, nature and extent of products and services offered. The key competitive differences are a commitment to highly personalized service and local decision making. The ongoing restructuring of the major chartered banks and the legislative changes approved for the Canadian financial sector may provide additional competitive opportunities for the Bank.

SELECTED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Comparability of Data

During the year ended October 31, 2001 the Bank issued 1.1 million common shares for gross cash proceeds of $29.4 million.

During the year ended October 31, 2000 CWC was sold. For reporting purposes the results of operations of CWC and the loss on disposal of $3.05 million were disclosed separately from continuing operations and comparative balances were restated.

During the year ended October 31, 2000 all of the outstanding 6.75% convertible subordinated debentures, which totalled $11.6 million, were converted by holders into 925,200 shares.

Changes in Accounting Policies and Practices

As disclosed in the notes to the financial statements in the Annual Report, there were no material changes in accounting policies or practices that occurred for the years ended October 31, 2000 and 2001. In the fiscal year ended October 31, 1999 the Bank increased its general allowance for credit risk by $11.7 million in the year ended October 31, 1999 in accordance with guidance provided by the Superintendent of Financial Institutions. This one-time adjustment resulted in a $6.5 million charge to retained earnings representing the $11.7 million adjustment less deferred income taxes of $5.2 million. This accounting treatment for the general allowance for credit risk at October 31, 1999 was approved by the Superintendent of Financial Institutions and did not conform to generally accepted accounting principles.

Dividend Policy and Restrictions

Dividends are payable on the Bank's common shares if, as and when declared by the Board of Directors of the Bank. During the year ended October 31, 1999 the dividend policy was amended to be semi-annual instead of annual and the first semi-annual dividend was paid in July 1999. Previously annual dividends had been paid in January. Although it is the present intention of the Board of Directors to continue dividend payments, the Board is not required to declare or pay dividends on the Bank's common shares.

The Bank is prohibited from paying or declaring a dividend if there are reasonable grounds for believing that the Bank is, or that payment would cause the Bank to be, in contravention of any regulation made under the Bank Act with respect to the maintenance of adequate capital and adequate and appropriate forms of liquidity or with any direction given to the Bank with respect to such matters by the Superintendent.

MARKET FOR SECURITIES

The common shares of the Bank and the 5.50% convertible subordinated debentures are listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange ("TSE").

DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

The following table sets out the name, position with the Bank, municipality of residence of each officer of the Bank who is not also a director of the Bank and how long the individual has been employed by the Bank as at December 31, 2001:

Officers of the Bank
